Murder-Suicide Takes Lives Of Jack Bergs

An Escanaba couple, the parents of five children, are dead today, victims in an apparent murder and suicide.

Dead are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Berg of 1226 Lake Shore Drive. He was 41 years old and his wife, Dorothy, was 38.

Authorities said the husband apparently shot his wife to death in the basement of the Peterson Shoe Store, 1214 Ludington St. last night and then drove to a cottage near Ford River where he took his own life.

Mrs. Berg was the former Dorothy Peterson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Gust Peterson of Escanaba Rte. 1.

Berg had been associated in the Peterson Shoe Store with his father-in-law for a number of years.

Jack Berg

Found in Car
Berg's lifeless body, in a closed automobile with the motor running, was found parked at the Gust Peterson cottage on the Ford River by Gerald F. McKie, a neighbor, about 7:30 a.m. today. A hose had been connected to the exhaust and entered a car window.

At about the same hour Mr. Peterson reported to Escanaba police that his daughter and son-in-law were missing from their home.

Peterson told officers that the Berg children reported their parents had left about 9 p.m. Sunday night to go downtown to a movie. They were worried because they had not yet come home this morning.

Sheriff's officers and State Police joined in the investigation in the Ford River area, and Escanaba police continued the search for Mrs. Berg in the city.

At about 10 a.m. the body of Mrs. Berg was found in the basement of the shoe store. She had been shot eight or nine times through the head. There late Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Berg of Iron Mountain. He graduated from Iron Mountain High School in 1943 and from the Green Bay School of Adult Education and later attended Northern Michigan University at Marquette.

He married Dorothy Peterson in Menominee on Dec. 29, 1947. He was associated as a partner in the operation of the store with his father-in-law for a number of years.

Mrs. Berg was born Oct. 21, 1928, in Escanaba. She graduated from Escanaba high school and also attended Northern Michigan University, Marquette.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church and of the church choir.

Survivors include five children, Pamela, 18, a student at Bay de Noc Community College; Susan, 15, a sophomore at Escanaba Area high school; Kevin, 12, a student in the junior high; Brian, 10 attending Lemmer school fifth grade, and Janis, 4, at home. Mrs. Charles Pietranonio of Kingsford, daughter of Mr. Berg by a previous marriage also survives.

Also surviving are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Gust Peterson, and two sisters, Mrs. P. C. (Marion) Hamel of Green Bay, Wis., and Mrs. Thomas (Jean) Brayak of Rte. 1, Bark River.

Johnson Makes Prophet Out Of Family's Doctor

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson doesn't always mind his doctor. But the doctor seemed to know he wouldn't.

The President, who underwent two operations Wednesday, tool about the hill country of central Texas Sunday at the wheel of a white Continental, making an accurate — but reluctant — prophet out of his family physician, Dr. James C. Cain.

Johnson "is a hard man to slow down," Cain had observed Wednesday, though adding that he and other presidential doctors hoped they could persuade the chief executive to take things easy.

One of their rules: Johnson "shouldn't drive a car for maybe three weeks."

The President started off minding doctors' orders, but it didn't last long Sunday.

Mrs. Johnson drove the President to 11 o'clock services at the Johnson City Christian church where the lay minister, Ray Alkin, an Austin school principal, announced Johnson had been elected elder.

It was the President's first real public outing since surgery for the removal of a polyp from his throat and the repair of an incisional hernia which resulted from his gall bladder-kidney stone operation in October 1965.

Carl J. Sawyer, former mayor of Escanaba and a founder and partner in the Sawyer-Stoll Timber Co., died at his home 1201 7th Ave. S. at 12:15 a.m. today after a short illness. He was 81.

Mr. Sawyer spent his lifetime in the timber business and he was regarded in the Lake States as one of its most knowledgeable persons, and a historian of sorts who wrote two local books on the industry. His first book was "A History of Lumbering in Delta County" and his second, published this year, is "A History of Sawmills of the Upper Peninsula."

The body is at the Anderson Funeral Home where it will lie in state from 4 to 8:30 p.m. Tuesday. There will be a Masonic service at 8 p.m. Tuesday and the body will be taken to the First Methodist Church at noon Wednesday.

Air Cavalrymen Fight Circle Of Red Viet Force

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. air cavalrymen clashed with North Vietnamese soldiers in close-quarter fighting today in the central highlands and reported killing 162 of the enemy.

The U.S. military command said the battle broke out when a platoon of the 1st Cavalry, Airborne, Division was attacked at hand grenade range by a "sizeable" North Vietnamese force.

The platoon suffered heavy casualties before reinforcements arrived, a military spokesman said. Air strikes were called in to hammer at the attacking Communists.

The action, part of Operation Paul Revere 4, raged 21 miles southwest of the U.S. Army Special Forces camp at Plei Djereng, scene of North Vietnamese probes and skirmishes for more than a week.

Ground action was reported light elsewhere, but Korean marines operating near the South China Sea coast reported killing 91 Viet Cong Sunday in a two-and-a-half-hour battle seven miles northwest of Quang Ngai City. A Korean spokesman said the marines clashed with a reinforced Viet Cong company of 200 men, the largest enemy unit they have met since moving into the area last August.

In the air, Guam-based B52 bombers staged three raids today on enemy positions in South Viet Nam, two of them in Communist War Zone C in Tay Ninh Province.

A few hours after the giant Stratofortress struck, 1,300 men of the U.S. 24th Infantry Division were lifted by helicopter into the target area, moving to within 1,300 yards of the Cambodian border.

Brig. Gen. G. G. O'Connor, the assistant division commander, said his forces would continue to search for the Viet Cong in the area "but it seems now that they have fled across the border for sanctuary."

In the central highlands fighting, a U.S. spokesman said the North Vietnamese hit the American cavalrymen initially from all sides.

The spokesman said contact diminished this afternoon but was still continuing at last report. He said U.S. casualties so far were light.

Courteous Bandit Settles For $5

DETROIT (AP) — A courteous bandit, trying for a $10 hold-up, settled for $5, police reported.

He entered a cleaning store Friday and put a pen knife to the throat of Mrs. Erma Brown, 42.

"I'm desperate. I need $10," he said.

Mrs. Brown said she was scared at first but something about the youth, about 20, and wearing rumpled clothes, put her at ease.

"Well, why don't you only take $5," she said.

He carefully removed a $5 bill from the cash register, then asked for a pencil, and wrote down Mrs. Brown's name and address.

"I'll get it back to you," he said, and fled.

$10 Killing Probed

SAGINAW (AP) — Police continued today to probe the knife slaying of Mrs. Ann McCrea, 32, of Saginaw. The victim's body was found Saturday by her brother, Fred Gohm of Saginaw. Police said the victim's purse, containing less than $10, was missing.

Police were working on the assumption today that Walter (Tony) Wojcik, 30, of Rte. 1, Wilson, was murdered Friday.

Det. Sgt. Edward Hill of Marquette, who is coordinating the investigation, said officers are checking a couple of tips and leads that "look promising." No warrants have been issued, however, he said.

"We are quite confident that the wound was not self-inflicted," he said.

Wojcik, LaBranche area woodman and farmer, was found dead on Kimberly-Clark property near his own land in Harris Township, Menominee County, shortly after 3 p.m. Friday by his mother, Mrs. Bertha Wojcik.

Mrs. Wojcik was making her second search for her son, who had left the house about 7 a.m. to check the property and had not returned.

"There is still the possibility that the shooting was accidental," Hill said, "but we must investigate the worst possibility first and keep all other situations in mind so we don't overlook anything."

Hill said that the autopsy performed Saturday by Dr. Ronald Berry, St. Francis Hospital pathologist, placed time of death as Friday morning. He said that Wojcik was killed by a single shot from "a larger caliber gun than the one he was carrying."

A .32 caliber automatic rifle Wojcik had when he left the house early in the morning was found near the body, but Hill said no shells were found and that an automatic rifle would have ejected them had it been fired.

"We don't think he was dragged to the spot," Hill

New Airline Formed To Serve Peninsula

Norton, Thorin Announce Daily Flight Schedule

By CLINT DUNATHAN

ESCANABA — The Upper Peninsula will begin the new year with a new airline — Peninsula Air Transport Co. — which will link the region east and west and bridge Lake Michigan with a flight to Traverse City, Saginaw and Lansing.

"We are shooting for a start sometime in January," said R.J. "Bud" Norton, President of Peninsula Air Transport Co. The cities to be served initially with scheduled commuter airline service will be Escanaba, Marquette, Iron Mountain, Munising, Manistique, Sault Ste. Marie, Traverse City, Saginaw, and Lansing.

The company is locally owned. Escanaba will be the base of operations and the general offices are located here.

Norton and John Thorin, director of operations for P.A.T. Co. are pilots and experienced in aviation — but neither will pilot for the new firm. Norton is the director of administration for Clairmont Transfer Co. at Escanaba and was a pilot with the U.S. Navy in World War II and the Korean War.

Three Flights
Thorin is manager of the Escanaba Municipal Airport, is a pilot and was a fighter pilot instructor with the U.S. Army in World War II and the Korean conflict.

"The aircraft we will use for this service is a Cessna 402 which was specifically designed for short haul passenger service by Cessna," said Thorin.

"The craft has twin engines speed up to 240 miles an hour and 10 places, eight of which will be for passengers."

There will be two round-trip flights daily, one in the morning and one in the evening. Each will originate at Marquette and will connect Marquette, Iron Mountain, Escanaba, Traverse City, Saginaw and Lansing. A third round-trip flight, at mid-day, originating at Escanaba, will connect Escanaba, Munising, Manistique, and Sault Ste. Marie.

Norton said that he and Thorin began discussing the possibilities of the service almost a year ago. The consideration included air service between Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. and Duluth-Superior, touching at Newberry, Manistique, Munising, Escanaba, Marquette, Iron Mountain, Iron River, Crystal Falls, Houghton, Ontonagon, Ironwood and Ashtabula.

Across The Lake
Those communities not shown on the initial schedule will be contacted by a representative of P.A.T. within the next few weeks, with the hope of extending the service into that western area with the proposed acquisition of additional equipment, Norton explained.

"We also considered the possibility of developing service which might link the Upper and Lower Peninsulas with an 'aerial bridge' which North Central Airlines found necessary to abandon, because of its larger equipment and the few passengers that segment generated," Norton said.

Norton and Thorin believe it is possible to successfully connect the smaller communities with scheduled airline service because of recent advancements in the type of aircraft available for this type of operation.

"The service we propose should be the basis for a reasonably successful business venture — but Peninsula Air Transport Co. anticipates that, as with many such business ventures, it will sustain losses the first year or so of operation," Norton added.

Cooperate With N.C.
The proposed schedule will be adjusted to connect with North Central Airlines' schedule at Escanaba, as well as with other cities that have or will have the service, it was explained.

"We are not going to be competitive with North Central Airlines in any way," said Norton. "In fact, it is the intention of P.A.T. to supplement

Draft Meet Is Seeking Choice

YELLOW SPRINGS, Ohio (AP) — A college-sponsored conference on the Selective Service System adopted a resolution calling for a more liberal definition of a conscientious objector after three students walked out in protest.

One of those who walked out, Frank Shaffer, a student at Lawrence University in Appleton, Wis., said the proposed change would "allow a person to be (draft) exempt if he didn't want to serve in a particular war."

Two Yale students joined Shaffer of Phoenix, Ariz., in the protest Sunday during the final day of the conference sponsored by Antioch College.

The proposal asks that a man be exempted as a conscientious objector if he has personal philosophical or moral objections to a war.

"In our society we just can't allow a person to decide which war he will serve in," Shaffer said.

The conference, attended by students, teachers and administrators from about 40 colleges, was called "extremely successful" by Dr. James P. Dixon, president of Antioch. The delegates acted as individuals, not as representatives of their schools.

Orbiter Scouts Six Moon Sites For Astronauts

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Lunar Orbiter 2 has photographed six potential astronaut landing sites on the moon and has seven more places to scout, scientists report.

In 67 orbits of the moon the spacecraft had exposed 87 of a planned 211-frame picture series. Some pictures show details on the moon's surface as small as three feet across, scientists at Jet Propulsion Laboratory said Sunday.

Romney In San Juan To Meet Rockefeller

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — Gov. George Romney of Michigan arrived Sunday for a vacation that will include political talks with New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller on ways to strengthen the Republican party.

Romney said in a statement that recently elected Republican governors will be in a position to have more influence in national affairs and in the Republican party itself.

He said GOP governors had shown the people that the party could provide better solutions to national and international problems.

ROMNEY Need Consensus
Romney, considered a possible candidate for the 1968 Republican Presidential nomination, was to meet with Rockefeller today at the Dorado Beach Hotel. Rockefeller has been vacationing there and elsewhere in the Caribbean for the past 10 days.

Commenting on recent statements by Rockefeller that the GOP needs to achieve a "consensus," Romney said "that's Rockefeller's word. I think what we need is leadership."

In an apparent reference to President Johnson, Romney added: "I identify the word consensus with someone who has not fared too well with consensus recently."

Favored In Poll
Romney was accompanied by his wife, Lenore. They planned to stay here for two weeks.

Burglars Get Diamonds, Watches

Two burglars broke into the Wise Brothers Jewelry store at 1616 Ludington St. during the weekend and made off with an estimated $10,000 in diamonds and watches.

The loss was estimated by George Wise, the proprietor, who said the thieves rifled the show cases and threw boxes around in locating the more valuable items before they broke open the safe.

Escanaba police reported the burglary was discovered by Vincent Dambrosio, whose barbershop is located next to the jewelry store. Dambrosio called police early this morning when he went to his shop.

Officers said the burglars broken open the bottom of a door at the rear of the barbershop, went to the basement of the barbershop and there broke through a wooden partition to get into the basement of the jewelry store.

From there they went to the first floor of Wise Brothers and rifled the show cases and display shelves of watches and other valuables.

They broke open the safe with the use of a steel punch, pry bars, and a 20-pound sledge hammer. The lock and controls of the safe were knocked off to gain entry.

Police said they believed two men were involved in the burglary.

The method of entering the building and opening the safe was similar to that used in Escanaba to rob the Blomstrom & Petersen Jewelry store on March 25, 1965.

Lions Ask Gifts For Mental Unit

Area residents are urged to support the Ninth Annual Upper Peninsula Lions Club Christmas Gifts for the Mentally III at Newberry project. Of the over 1800 patients at Newberry, many do not receive remembrances from outside of the hospital setting. The goal of the Lions' project is to insure that none of Newberry's patients is forgotten at Christmas time.

Donald Breault, president of the Escanaba Lions Club said, "It appears inconsistent with the meaning of Christmas that during this time of affluence when people have more luxury items and money than before, there are those in our society who may be deprived of a Christmas remembrance. Even a small gift takes on major significance to one who receives only one gift each year."

"While you are doing your Christmas shopping, buy an extra gift and leave it at Gust Aspa's, Thyberg's, or Manning's Shoe Store. Lion club members will be responsible for transporting gifts to Newberry and it is requested that all gifts be received prior to December 15, the closing date of the drive," Breault said.

This is the 9th consecutive year of the Lions' drive. If gifts are wrapped, Lions ask that contents be noted.

Bobby's Campaign

When U. S. Senator Robert Kennedy (D-New York) came to Escanaba to campaign for the Democratic state ticket he drew a Saturday afternoon crowd estimated at up to 4,000 persons. He spoke to about 3,000 of them at the Escanaba Area High School gymnasium.

His visit brought local Democratic party enthusiasm to its high point of expectancy and hope in the campaign above the Straits.

When Gov. George Romney and U. S. Senator Robert Griffin visited Escanaba the next Tuesday evening they had a small audience — only about 200 persons — in the cold at the Escanaba Airport. "It's not a very big turnout," said the Governor as his bus turned into the airport.

But when the votes were counted the next week it was clear that the turnouts weren't an accurate indication of election trends. Romney and Griffin carried Delta County. What happened?

The Bobby Kennedy phenomenon is one of the most written about items in the autopsy on the national election.

Kenneth Crawford wrote in Newsweek: "The voters said 'LBJ and his Democrats have become too powerful and they have been so profligate in their use of power that we need a strengthened opposition party in Congress to cool them down.'"

"This was the precise opposite of what Robert Kennedy, the top banana in the brother act, said from scores of campaign platforms scattered over more than 20 states. Bobby was the most scintillating star of the campaign on either side. Except for the President himself, he drew the biggest crowds, inspired the wildest applause and attracted the most attention. He also was the most easily understood. He said the nation was doing well but not well enough — that it should spend more, not less, on slum clearance, for alleviation of poverty and on schools.

"Thus on the issues, a case can be made for the proposition that the Kennedys were more emphatically repudiated than the Administration by the outcome of the election."

Life magazine, in "What Is Robert Kennedy Up To?" in its current issue says that in the councils of the Kennedy family they speak humorously of "The Restoration," meaning the return of a Kennedy to the White House. The designate at this time is Robert Francis Kennedy, the oldest surviving son.

The Nov. 8 election left a few wounds on Robert Kennedy as men he supported were licked by Republicans, but Kennedy campaigned across the country and collected a lot of political IOUs. The gratitude was increased by the bitterness toward President Johnson for his lack of a strong contribution to the campaign.

"In the face of such a default by the President, 1968 looks like more than a wild wish for Bob Kennedy," says Life, "but the hard calculus of politics says otherwise, and Bob Kennedy is far too shrewd a political mathematician not to take note. . . Bobby is too big for secrets and running openly people would say 'why can't he wait?' It would revive all that old talk about being ruthless. Beyond this, an open fight would shatter the party."

"There remains the more plausible target of the vice presidency in 1968. In 1964 Johnson told an adviser 'I hate that kid, but if I thought for one minute that I needed him, I'd take him. But if I don't need him, he'll never get the job.'"

Johnson didn't need Kennedy in 1964, but in 1968 he might. A Kennedy aide said "Lyndon and Bobby could live together; the government is full of guys who despise each other."

Life rates Johnson comfortable with Hubert Humphrey, but possessed of both the nerve and means to dump Hubert if convinced that Kennedy was the man he needed. It says Kennedy wanted the vice presidency in 1964 and would find it hard to turn it down if Lyndon Johnson offered it in 1968.

"He is tougher and more resourceful than Hubert Humphrey and he would be assuring himself a straight run into the White House in 1972."

Kennedy's relationship with President Johnson has been shorn of its intense personal bitterness and is now on a plane of mutual dislike, but professionalized, so that it can be tucked under the blankets if the occasion demands.

The public as well as the Kennedys like the Kennedy legend. LBJ has said, "They won't believe that he's dead," but the Kennedys haven't been so emotionally involved in the legend that they've lost their sense of propriety. Its tremendous appeal dawns on other politicians. Soapy Williams had both Ted Kennedy and Bobby Kennedy come to Michigan to help him and the result was fascinating, but not helpful to Williams. About all it proved, said a downstate newspaper "was that Kennedy could be elected in Michigan."

So while the Bobby Kennedy charisma didn't brush off well on the Democrats he urged for election, it seems to serve him very well indeed and Uncle Lyndon in the White House watched every bit of it and made some mental calculations about 1968.

Ford Disclaims Right Body Found In Right Grave Veep Ambitions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Gerald R. Ford, House Republican leader, says "I have absolutely no interest whatsoever in running for vice president."

Ford, in an interview, said his "future is here, in the House of Representatives." He said he hoped to be speaker of the House some day.

While disclaiming any ambition to become vice president, the 36-year-old Ford, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, Gov. George Romney said "the front runner" for the 1972 presidential nomination.

"This doesn't automatically open Gov. Romney will get the nomination," Ford said. "He will have to work for it."

Beer Costs More But

Price Of Milk Incites Outrage

By GAYNOR MADDOX
WASHINGTON (NEA) — Despite housewives' protests, food prices will go higher in coming months.

And the consumer can do very little in the future to halt the upward trend.

This is the consensus of economists and marketing experts in various government agencies and private business consulted by Newspaper Enterprise during a lengthy investigation of the many pressures behind food price increases.

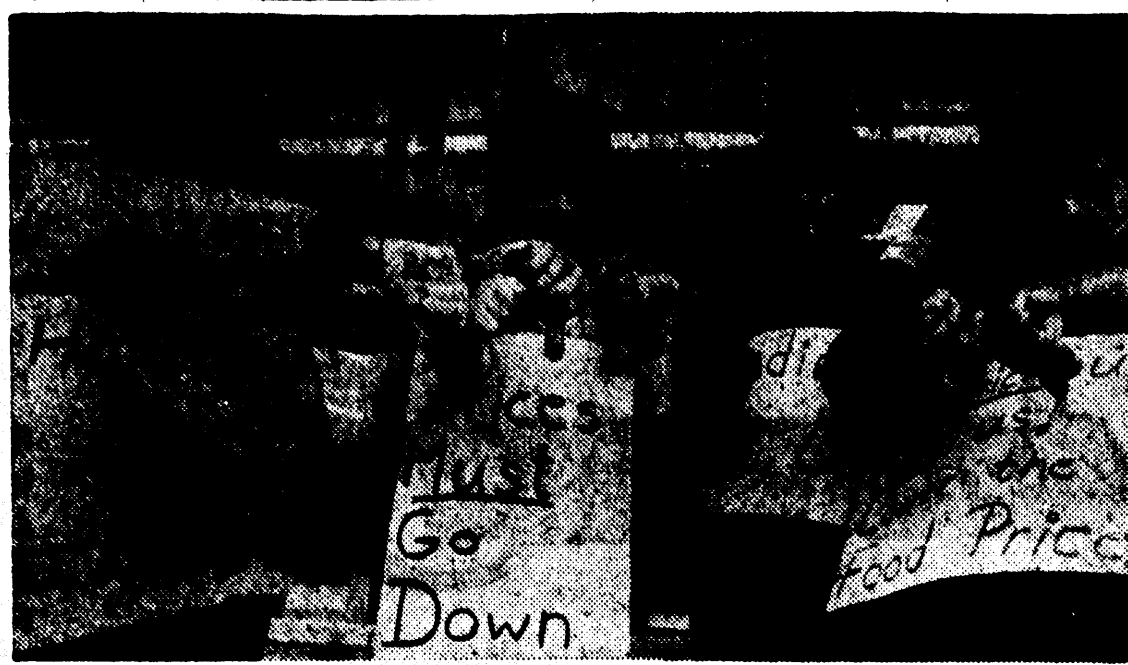

Boycotts may get the headlines but learning to market more critically would pay off better for the cost-conscious housewife, according to Rosalind Lifshutz of the U. S. Economic Research Service. She added:

"Many American women are poor shoppers. They usually prefer to pick up all their food and domestic supplies in one large supermarket, rather than shop around and compare the values."

Despite what many urban consumers think, the farmer is not the devil in the picture. Winn Finner, acting director of agricultural economics at the Department of Agriculture, said:

"Certainly the farmer's income should be brought more into line with the income of nonfarmers. But the department does not believe the only way to raise farm income is to hike food prices. Bigger farms, more efficiency and new techniques are other factors."

Despite a 4 per cent rise in market basket prices since 1965, the farmer is getting little more today than the 40 cents of each food dollar he has been getting the past several years. He has, however, profited proportionately from the large increase in total food sales. The concern at the Agriculture Department now is that the farmer may not be able to hold onto the gains he has made. Finner commented:

DEMONSTRATIONS, such as this one in LeVittown, Pa., have caused some supermarket chains to lower food prices. But economists say that overall the nationwide protests will have little or no effect.

"There are strong indications that farm income is headed down, but lower farm prices would not necessarily lower food prices. The recent drop of 30 cents per bushel of wheat meant only a drop of less than half a cent in the cost of the wheat needed for a pound loaf of bread."

There are powerful non-farm factors behind higher consumer food prices. Costs have gone up throughout the entire food marketing system

Stamps

Supermarket efforts to outdo competitors with trading stamp offers, fancier decorations, piped-in music and bigger parking lots run up operating costs. These are generally passed on to the consumer since net profit—11-12 cents or less on each dollar of sales—is not large enough to permit stores to assume such extra promotional expenses.

for wages, trucks, tires, gas, cans, boxes, extra services and "built-in" conveniences.

To these and other upward pressures must be added the increasing expenditures for food advertising and store promotion. The National Commission on Food Marketing, a bipartisan group of five senators, five congressmen and five members appointed by President Johnson, said it considered "appropriate" that advertising which informs the consumer about products and prices. But it questioned whether advertising designed merely to persuade purchases of one product among comparable products of many firms does actually increase the value of goods to consumers.

The report noted that six major manufacturers of breakfast cereals (they hold almost all the market) spend approximately 15 per cent of their sales dollar for media advertising, more than 80 per cent of it for television.

Washington spokesmen for the large commercial produce growers in California and the Southwest cited another added production cost affecting such items as lettuce, carrots, onions, grapes and pears. This was the 1965 outlawing by the Department of Labor of the use of 200,000 seasonal field laborers imported under contract from Mexico and the West Indies. This highly productive "stoop" labor was replaced by costly and intricate mechanized harvesting equipment and higher-priced domestic labor.

At today's supermarket prices, an 8-ounce glass of milk costs approximately seven cents. The same amount of beer costs 14 cents. The average price of a slice of white bread is about one cent. A stick of chewing gum costs the same.

All four grocery store items ride side by side in many market carts. But only the price of bread and milk incites the budget outrage.

Bread and milk seem to have built-in emotional triggers, despite their relatively declining emphasis in today's family menus. Each year since 1930 we have been consuming less whole fluid milk. Although stressing milk's importance in the diet as the best available source of calcium, nutritionists now lower their estimates of minimum amounts needed daily, particularly for those past adolescence and up to old age.

The increasing awareness that cholesterol may be associated with heart disease has curtailed whole milk consumption. Sales of nonfat milk, both dry and fluid, however, have climbed.

Bread sales have been going down, too. In an increasingly affluent society, families buy more meat, poultry, fruit and vegetables and less bread products. Another reason is the national preoccupation with overweight and the recent propaganda for low-carbohydrate diets. Yet whenever the price of bread or milk plays penny ante with the family budget, consumers instinctively suspect industry hanky-panky.

Under public pressure, Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman, asked the Federal Trade Commission to determine if milk and bread price increases reflected evidence of unjustified market operations or deliberate stifling of competition. The commission released a preliminary report Oct. 25 which revealed that the increase in bread prices to the consumer was three times the increase in prices of farm products used in the bread. Also, the increase in milk prices was about double the increase in milk prices received by dairy farmers.

Whatever the causes behind higher milk prices, consumers must face the fact that dairymen predict a diminishing supply of fluid milk unless they can get a realistic return for their investment and labor.

The National Commission's report also said that a more efficient system of getting bread to consumers could help slow down rising costs of this food.

It stated: "Moving the bread from baker's platform to consumer in a retail store costs almost as much as it does to grow the wheat, mill the flour, and bake the bread. A loaf of bread that costs 11 cents at the baker's dock sells for around 20 cents in the retail store. It is not unusual for five or six different wholesale bakeries to deliver to a supermarket each day, and for the driver salesman to stock the shelves and remove the stale items. This duplication of service contributes to high delivery costs."

Trade Proposed For Wife Of 'Warrior'

Dear Ann Landers: The letter from "Wall Street Warrior" was an eye-opener. I am glad to know there is at least one man in the world who is too tired for sex.

I'm 53. My first husband died when he was 50 and I think I know what killed him. My second husband was also after me night and day. I had to divorce him to get some rest. Two years later I married a man 62 thinking I'd be out of danger. He's the worst of the lot.

Your column is a post-graduate course in living. Thank you for it. — GEMINI

Dear Ann: What a rotten trick you pulled on every love-starved wife in America. I wonder if you know how much trouble you cause. My Lochinvar has been giving me the old routine "I'm dead tired beating my brains out making a living for you and the kids—bla bla bla." I've been saying it is not normal for a man 38 years old to be too tired for love no matter how hard he works at his job. Then you come along with your lousy column and take HIS side. He has talked of nothing else for two days. Why don't you retire? — MAD

Dear Ann: I wish I could trade place with Wall Street Warrior's wife. She doesn't know how lucky she is. My husband thinks sex is the answer to everything — tension, sleeplessness, worry, headache. Where he got this crazy idea I'll never know but it has been the bane of my existence for 15 years. I wonder if I'm the only woman in the world who is married to such a nut. Ask around, will you? — PADUCAH SHIMMY QUEEN

Dear Ann: Please tell "Warrior" he is an ignorant boob. When will men learn that sex and love are not the same thing? A simple, "I love you," a warm caress, or a sweet kiss on the cheek would keep most hard-working, floor-scrubbing, baby-tending wives happy for a week. In fact, a little affection WITHOUT sex as the objective, would be darned welcome. Women get tired, too, you know. — MADE-LINE

Dear Ann: "Warrior" had a lot to say about women, most of it rubbish. Funny how some men can be so smart when it comes to business and so stupid when it comes to the female psyche. Warrior complained because his wife's timing was poor. He resented her bringing up money matters when he was in an amorous mood. Even the dumbest wife knows that the only way to get anything extra out of a husband is to nail him when he feels romantic. Any wife who tries to get a new vacuum sweeper, or a new rug out of the old man by explaining that she needs one is out of her mind. — BEEN THERE AND BACK

Dear Ann: Why don't men wise up? The reason women attach so much importance to sex is because it's the only method of communication open to us. Men don't talk anymore. They turn on the TV, or bury their noses in the newspaper, or just fall asleep. The only way a wife can win the battle for her husband's attention is to use her strongest weapon. — CHICKADEE

Dear Ann Landers: Where do all the tired men come from? When I was single I never ran into a man who was too tired for anything. What is there about the marriage ceremony that creates such exhaustion? If you know will you please let me in on it? — LOLLYPOP

Dear Lollypop and Readers: Tomorrow I will let you all in on plenty. I'm going to print what I regard as the best reply to the Wall Street Warriors. See you here. — ANN LANDERS

Fred Karpins new book, "Psychological Strategy in Bridge," includes examples of strategic bids made in the early days of contract.

Today's hand is from the Culbertson-Lenz match and illustrates a bid invented by Oswald Jacoby early in 1981 and used successfully in that match.

This particular bid known as the preemptive jump overcall is standard expert practice today. In 1931 Jacoby was about the only person who used it, although other experts followed along shortly thereafter. We still recommend the bid but not with quite so weak a hand as Jacoby held then.

The purpose of the preemptive week jump overcall is to deprive your opponents of bidding space. It is also likely to excite them and cause them to misbid. The danger of the bid comes from being doubled and in which case your opponents could have made had they played the hand.

The two heart bid excited Mrs. Culbertson sitting North. She jumped to three spades. Ely Culbertson, South, bid four diamonds. From then on the bidding continued to six diamonds. Ely's four and five no-trump bids were normal. This match was played before anyone had invented an artificial four no-trump convention.

Mrs. Culbertson might well have stopped at five no-trump but she knew Ely had a good hand and could not visualize that most of his strength was in hearts.

The slam would have made except for the fact that Jacoby came up with the lead of the six of spades. He hoped to discourage a spade finesse but it turned out that Lenz held the ace. Lenz returned a spade for the setting trick. With any other suit led Culbertson would have made all the tricks.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—William B. MacDonald Jr., 34, millionaire Miami sportsman, was found dead Sunday in a pool where he went for a dip.

The body was found only in walking shorts, with $1,335 in water-soaked bills in a pocket. MacDonald, a Butte, Mont., native and sometime Boston bus conductor, recently estimated his wealth at $6 million to $10 million.

He brought a 1964 heavy-weight championship fight between Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston to Miami Beach, lost $500,000 backing the Miami Marlins in the International Baseball League, and was a treasurer and stockholder in Tropical Park horse race track.

After working on Boston buses, MacDonald built up a bus line of his own shuttling between Chicago and New York during the 1933 World's Fair. He sold it in 1935 for $250,000 then lost most of his money through investments. He came to Miami as an auto parking lot concessionaire, then regained his fortune during World War II in hauling trailers from factories to dealers.

MacDonald leaves his widow, Victoria, and two children. An autopsy was ordered.

(MacDonald was a summer visitor to Escanaba Yacht Harbor in his yacht "Snooze" named for his wife's nickname in the years that he lived in Chicago.)

Transfer Cargo From Grounded German Freighter

ALPENA (AP)—First steps to free the German freighter Nordmeer from a shoal in Lake Huron got underway today. Salvage crews from a Detroit firm were ordered to transfer the 470-foot ship's cargo of coal steel to another vessel, for transport to Chicago. The Nordmeer's owner, Nordstern-Reederei of Hamburg, Germany, sent two officials to inspect damage to the vessel.

The Nordmeer's engine room and four holds became flooded after the vessel went aground Saturday night on Thunder Bay shoal about 20 miles east of Alpena. The impact ripped a hole in no danger.

Four of the ship's officers remained aboard. Thirty-nine other crewmen were taken to Alpena. The vessel was reported in no danger. Cause of the Nordmeer's grounding was not immediately known.

Smits On Wildfowlers: Hunters Are Birdwatchers

By LEE KEMPT
Two hefty birds came out of a snow squall, dropped in to the decoys and refused to take wing as two hunters yelled at them. The green birds, unaware of man's blood-thirstiness, got themselves killed. But, what were they?

After diligent checking with a bird guide, the hunters gave up. They sent the duck skins to a professor and in due time learned that they had shot a pair of king eiders, establishing a record for the appearance of this species in Michigan. There never was a confirmed duck-hunter who wasn't something of an ornithologist. He learns to identify some 20 species of ducks, five or six species of geese, in addition to other water birds such as loons, grebes, coot and mudhens. He ponders the mysteries of migration. He discovers odd hybrids, wonders why red-heads are trusting, why blue-bills persist in swimming out of a sneak-shooter's decoys but keep coming to a layout rig; why canvasback circle and inspect, but once in the decoys are likely to stay.

A beginner quickly knows that there are two great duck families—marsh ducks and divers. The marsh ducks he encounters right off are mallard, black duck, bluewing teal, greenwing teal, widgeon, pintail. Out on open water the canvasback is king, with red-head next in line, bluebill most abundant, especially on interior lakes, with ringbill, butterball, ruddy, three species of mergansers showing up with fair regularity. There will be occasional flights of scoters and old squaws.

There is fascination in duck names. One name is never enough for any species. In different parts of the country, even in various parts of Michigan, a duck will have as many as half a dozen names. The books have never listed a species called the John, yet at the mouth of the Detroit River or a canvasback's nickname is John. The ringbill is also ring-necked, marsh bluebill and, on Muskegon Bay, years ago, a club duck.

By Dahlia, seated in the front room of his home at Gibraltar, with a big picture window looking out on the meeting of the Detroit River and Lake Erie, will point to a cove inside Calf Island and remark that if spoonbills are on the grounds, there they will be feeding. Up along the west shore, just north of the mouth of the Huron River, a blue-bill territory. Out toward the lighthouse, where the bottom is covered with bleated limestone, canvasback congregates and with the cane, black duck, gobbling wild celery after canvasback have pulled it up and eaten the white roots.

Dahlia has been a duck-watcher all of his life. After the fine service North Central is offering the area.

Frank Buttmore, vice president traffic and sales for North Central, said: "We believe this is a good thing for the communities involved, and North Central will assist P.A.T. whenever and wherever it is constructive with North Central operations."

Norton added that it is anticipated that agreements and concurrences will be reached with North Central to give through ticketing for passengers and through movement of their baggage.

Latest Equipment
Thorin pointed out that the P.A.T. crew of pilot and copilot will be men fully qualified to meet all federal requirements, and the plane itself will be certified under the Federal Aviation Agency and the Federal Communications Commission.

"The equipment will include enroute weather radar, anti-icing, distance measuring, and complete automatic pilot systems comparable to that of North Central Airlines Convoirs," Thorin said. "Because of their high performance ratings they can operate on relatively short runways."

P.A.T. is now in the process of completing contract agreements with airport authorities of communities on the route. Some airport boards and commissions have yet to act, although most agreements have been approved.

The officers of the new airline are working closely with federal and state aviation agencies in the establishment of what is entirely new air routes between some of the communities; and in the installation and approval of navigational and instrument landing facilities where they are lacking.

At Munising and Manistique, P.A.T. is cooperating in studies with the Michigan Aeronautics Commission to determine the equipment necessary so those airports can receive scheduled airline service.

"A primary motive in establishing the service is that of giving whatever assistance we can to develop and improve the economic growth of the region," said Norton. "We of P.A.T. feel that such a service can be a decisive factor in the economic betterment of the Upper Peninsula."

This view is supported by studies and analyses made by the market research division of Cessna Aircraft; information from aeronautics and highway officials of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota; contacts with colleges and universities in the region; and responses to a questionnaire circulated with the cooperation of the Upper Michigan Tourist Association and its Secretary-Manager Ken Dorman.

BOSTON (AP)—Richard Cardinal Cushing, Roman Catholic archbishop of Boston, was presented Sunday night with the Eternal Light Medal by officials of the Jewish Theological Seminary.

Dr. Bernard Mandelbaum, seminary president, said Cardinal Cushing was selected to receive the award because he "symbolizes the perpetuation of moral and ethical teachings which help bring people closer together, enabling them better to understand the true meaning of the 'brotherhood of man' under the fatherhood of God."

Accord Averts Strike On TV

NEW YORK (AP)—Two performers unions and four broadcasting networks reached a tentative contract agreement Sunday night, averting a strike threatened for midnight.

Negotiating sessions went on throughout the day and, at 9:15 p.m., federal mediator Abraham A. Desser announced a settlement.

The announcement indicated that the 17,500 members of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists and the 18,000 members of the Screen Actors Guild would remain on the job pending membership votes.

There was no immediate comment from the two unions or the networks involved — the National Broadcasting Co., the Columbia Broadcasting System, the American Broadcasting Co. and the Mutual Radio Network. Terms of the settlement were not made public.

The old contracts between AFTRA and the networks expired at midnight last Tuesday. Talks were broken off early Wednesday but resumed Friday.

AFTRA had demanded that minimum pay be raised from $195 to $225 weekly for newsmen, $195 to $220 for staff announcers, and an additional $225 payment for on-camera appearances by newsmen.

The Guild sought an increase from $105 to $125 a day for performers by actors in commercials.

Mrs. Henry Ford Works To Rescue Art Hit By Flood

DETROIT (AP)—Mrs. Henry Ford is staying in Detroit to head a project to save some of the world's great art treasures damaged in flood-ravaged Italy. She had planned to fly to Italy to see members of her family living in Milan, which escaped the flooding.

Italian-born Christina Ford accepted an assignment last week as Detroit area president of the newly-formed Committee to Rescue Italian Art.

Mrs. Ford held her initial press conference and fund appeal Saturday at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

"I am determined to do all I can," she said, "not only because I am Italian, but because the arts, being to all the world and give pleasure to everyone."

Mrs. Ford said the Italian magazine Epoca reported the loss and damage to paintings, manuscripts and frescoes at $2 billion. She said the restoration of art is expected to take 30 years. The Detroit committee is working on assumption of a five-year course of action including radio, television, mail and personal appeals.

Bake a Handsome Thanksgiving Pie

We're definitely playing favorites.

This year the pumpkin pie we recommend is the dark and spicy variety. Handsome, too. Cooks who favor a pumpkin pie that's blonde and mild had better look elsewhere! Or if your family is divided on the important subject of just how spicy or mild a pumpkin pie should be, bake one of each kind. They'll always remember you lovingly for your effort. For, after all, "What moistens the lip and what brightens the eye—What calls back the past, like the rich Pumpkin Pie?"

This recipe makes life easy for a cook; it calls for a stick of prepared pie-crust for the pastry shell needed. For the pie plate, you may choose oven-proof glass. However, if you have a favorite metal pan that gives you results, don't hesitate, of course, to use that. Dark And Spicy Pumpkin Pie and toasted walnuts.

1 pie-crust stick
2 large eggs
1 cup firmly packed dark brown sugar (if lumpy, sift before measuring)
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon pumpkin-pie spice
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/4 cup maple-blended syrup
1 1/2 cups canned mashed pumpkin
1 cup undiluted evaporated milk
Whipped cream and toasted walnuts for garnish

Use pie-crust stick to prepare pastry for a 9-inch one crust pie shell as directed on inside wrapper.

In a medium mixing bowl, beat the eggs until whites and yolks are combined. Add the brown sugar, salt, pumpkin-pie spice, cinnamon and nutmeg; stir to blend. Stir and blend in the syrup, pumpkin and evaporated milk. Pour into prepared pie shell.

Bake in a hot (425 degrees) oven until a silver knife inserted 1-inch from the side of the filling comes out clean—

Artistry Of Krause Impresses Audience

BY MRS. CLAIRE GARRARD
From the robust, "Man Is Tom Krause, a youthful Finnish baritone with a voice sustained, "Song to the Evening Star" from Wagner's, bright promise, opened the 1966-67 Delta County Community Concert season Saturday evening at the William W. Oliver Memorial Auditorium.

A near capacity audience warmed steadily to the personable young man and was reluctant to have the concert end. Mr. Krause is a gifted singer in the true Lieder tradition, an art which places extreme discipline upon the musician. He sang from the works of Purcell, Schubert, Wagner, Bizet, Barber and Giordano but it was in the Six Songs of Jean Sibelius, his illustrious countryman, that he excelled. It is understandable that the artist should sing best in the Scandinavian idiom, and the enjoyment of the Sibelius songs was increased by his verbal translation of them.

ONWARD AND UPWARD appears to be the fashion motto in Moscow as well as in Paris, London and New York. Displaying capitalistic above-knee hemlines, these two Russian models brightened a Moscow conference. Purpose: To discuss the development of light industry in the U. S. S. R.

Salute To Neil
On His Birthday

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—In every large Irish family there is one child who seems closer to God than the others.

The finger of heaven seemed to point at the third son of five children my mother had—Neil. This is his birthday, and today, although he is young among the angels, he would be 54 years old and if he were still what is termed "alive."

Mama, in the grip of childhood, seemed to name her children in the flowing, old-fashioned style of penmanship that haunted a flourish. Before or after she came out of the ether, she decided that her third-born son—the one after me—would be known in City Hall records as Cornelius Gerald Boyle.

Mama's doctor in those days got a little annoyed with her because, although she yielded all her children reasonably easy in her home bedroom—none born in a hospital—she had this romantic penchant for long names. A tired doctor in those days, having a cup of coffee in the kitchen after an always successful delivery, hated the chore of writing down the infant's interminable identity.

Cornelius Gerald immediately became Neil.

A Gentle Soul
In a rude Irish brood, he had a gentleness that set him apart. He was by far the gentlest mind of us all, but there was a softness to his soul that made him different. At the table he was the last to reach for a second helping. He didn't like to compete for advantage.

As children, we were favorite brothers and slept in the same bed. It was ritual for us to scratch each other's back before we fell asleep—the winter underwear in those days kept kids in constant itch—but we never told each other who we were, or discussed our dreams. There was just a faith and a liking.

The whisper of God reached down to Neil, but never me.

The atmosphere of a large Irish family in those days was a capsule history of the Irish fate—loud with brags, hopes, denunciations, interior betrayal, and a seeking of immortality by gaining audience. It is a curse of the Irish that so many of them aspire to the conduct of kings, reckless of reckoning.

Heard God's Call
These family burials hurt the heart of Neil. He used to lie silently on the floor during them, his head based on the pillow of his folded hands, hearing above the family tempests God's word of call to him.

He decided to become a priest, and was about to go away to study and become one. An infection common in those days intervened and left him with a crippled heart.

Neil then became one of those many Irish who can't quite serve God to the fullness of their childhood choice and then become a prisoner of home and never get away.

The Army Air Corps took him in World War II and he loaded the guns in airplanes abroad in which he never flew or pulled a trigger. He was not gorn to kill.

Crippled Heart Yields
He liked to be useful, and children and old people trusted him. A little more than a year ago in Kansas City he was mowing the lawn for a nice old lady across the street and suddenly keeled over dead without question or outcry. Firemen came with oxygen tanks, but Neil had left home forever.

Bending over his coffin, mother flicked a spot of dust from his undertaker-adjusted face, kissed him, and said an Irish goodbye to the first less from her womb:

"You look lovely, Neil. Don't worry, dear, I'll be with you soon."

Well, of course Mama is only 79, and the rest of her children have no intention of allowing her this final reunion very soon. We are selfish enough to continue to demand her cheer, even though one of her sons remains away—the first to take flight from here, her brightest and perhaps her best.

And this, my dear brother, is my nosegay on your birthday to you. Hello, Neil.

State Briefs

DETROIT (AP)—Police detectives are seeking a sniper who wounded Melvin Killian, 25, with a shot in the back and fired at a parked car, a garage and several garbage cans. Killian was reported in fair condition at a hospital after the incident Thursday night.

PLYMOUTH (AP)—Bill Campbell, 23, of Plymouth Township, was fatally injured Friday when a car in which he was a passenger left Ann Arbor Trail and struck a tree.

ALVERNO (AP)—Russell Clark, 67, of Cheboygan, was killed Friday night when struck by a car on Black River Road, about 10 miles southeast of this Cheboygan County community.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Communications Commission said an application from radio station WHFI, Birmingham, Mich., for transfer of its control from James Clarkston, Clark J. Adams and others to J. Addison Bartush, was received Friday.

Newspaper Want Ads are a big sell! One billion, twenty-one million was spent on classified ads last year... more than for all magazine advertising combined and more than 300 million more than radio advertising.

Warren Hunter 7th U.P. Heart Attack Victim

Three more hunters became lost but were located in the Upper Peninsula during the weekend of the 1966 deer season entered its final week.

A heart attack felled another hunter in Upper Michigan increasing the season's toll to eight, two more than last year.

Another hunter reportedly was lost in the eastern part of the U.P. this morning, but to noon details were not available.

The three hunters lost over the weekend brought the season total of 16. All have been located. Last year 36 were lost and located in the U.P. deer season.

The gunfire figure remained unchanged at seven wounding this season. Last year there were two gunfire deaths and six wounding.

Meanwhile, hunting conditions in the U.P. today were reported "excellent."

Latest heart attack victim was Volle Mayhew, 65, of Warren, Mich., who was stricken at a hunting camp near Newberry Saturday and died Sunday in Helen Joy Hospital, Newberry.

Steve Johnson, 19, of Marquette, became lost in West

Branch Township, Marquette County, Sunday and was located by members of his own hunting party at 9:05 p.m. He was in good condition, State Police said.

Patrick DeKeyser, 25, Belleville, lost Saturday in Pentland Township, Luce County, was found by a search party in a helicopter from Kincheloe AFB at 11 a.m. Sunday. Milo Monteleone, 50, Roseville, was lost Sunday in Thompson Township, Schoolcraft County, but came out of the woods himself shortly before 9 a.m. today.

John Kampinen, Marquette, regional dispatcher for the Michigan Conservation Dept., said a lot of local hunters were in the woods during the weekend, but activity fell off completely during the Notre Dame-Michigan State football game Saturday afternoon.

Most Lower Michigan hunters have returned home, he said.

To 7 a.m. today, 30,005 vehicles carrying hunters had crossed the Mackinac Bridge into Lower Michigan. They had 8,905 deer and 144 bear from the U.P., compared to 30,926 cars with 9,455 deer and 91 bear at this time last year. Violations continued to exceed the 1965 pace in the U.P., with 46 illegally killed deer recovered and 355 arrests made to date. A year ago there were 20 illegally killed deer and 317 arrests made.

Permits through Wisconsin numbered 297, compared with 379 last year.

Kampinen said weekend kill was normal to light with no area reporting special success.

Inmate Is Beaten; Suspend Plymouth Home Attendants

PLYMOUTH (AP)—Two women attendants were suspended Sunday after the reported beating of a 14-year-old inmate at the Plymouth State Home and Training School.

The girl was not seriously injured, said Dr. Homer Weir, superintendent of the institution. Weir ordered the school's abuse committee to conduct a hearing on the case today. He said he also has asked State Police to investigate the beating.

Weir said both attendants were suspended on grounds of failing to report the inmate's injuries. He said other inmates accused one of the attendants of the beating.

German Party Coalition Seen

BONN, Germany (AP)—Sensational gains by West Germany's new ultra nationalist party in the Bavarian state elections Sunday increased the chances of a "grand coalition" of the Christian Democrats and Socialists to form a new national government.

Pressure mounted on the two big parties to end the 26-day government crisis by agreeing on a new chancellor and to agree on a revised election law that would keep the Nazi-tainted National Democratic party out of the federal parliament's lower house, the Bundestag.

The present system of proportional representation could give the National Democrats 30 or more of the 496 Bundestag seats when a national election is held if they repeat their recent success in two state elections. A law giving more weight to majority voting could keep them out of the Bundestag.

In their second success at the polls in two weeks, the National Democrats became the third strongest party in West Germany by winning 7.4 per cent of a record Bavarian vote and 15 seats in the legislature. They won 7.9 per cent of the vote and eight legislative seats in Hesse state Nov. 6.

Swann Wagner, of Escanaba, killed a 110 pound spittoon while hunting Saturday afternoon at Watson.

Plane Crash Kills 2 Near Cassopolis

CASSOPOLIS (AP)—Two Downie men were killed Sunday when their single-engine Piper airplane crashed in woods four miles northeast of Cassopolis.

The victims were identified as John Vytalos and Bryce Fosdick.

Case County sheriff's men and Federal Aviation Agency investigators sought to learn the cause of the crash.

Wirtz predicted that the world's population would double by the year 2000 from the present approximately three billion inhabitants.

Wirtz Sees Test Of Democracy In Erupting Growth

NEW YORK (AP)—Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz said Sunday that the world's population is growing so fast it may become impossible to educate enough people "to leave democracy even an outside chance of working."

He told a convocation of the Albert Einstein College of Medicine at Yeshiva University that the population explosion would give democracy its "ultimate test."

Wirtz predicted that the world's population would double by the year 2000 from the present approximately three billion inhabitants.

Carboly Strike Talks Deadlocked

WARREN (AP)—Both sides in the five-week United Auto Workers strike at Carboly Division of General Electric Co. reported Sunday they were deadlocked on an issue involving two fired workers.

"We advised the company we would not accept capital punishment," said Ken Morris, a UAW regional director.

A Carboly spokesman said the firm rejected a UAW demand for reinstatement of the two workers. Carboly fired the men for alleged attacks on company personnel. One of the discharged workers was found guilty last week in Warren Municipal Court of assault and battery for a picket line incident.

Some 1,100 members of UAW Local 771 are striking the company, sole producer of man-made diamonds in the United States, over new contract demands.

THIS CESSNA 402 ten-place plane is the type that will be used by Peninsula Air Transport. There will be a crew of pilot and co-pilot and the plane will have the most modern equipment.

Romney Favored Over Johnson In Presidential Poll

WASHINGTON (AP)—Americans now would favor Michigan Gov. George Romney as president over Lyndon B. Johnson, says pollster Louis Harris.

In a poll conducted by Harris after the Nov. 8 elections, voters favored Romney over Johnson 54 per cent to 46 per cent.

In the same poll, Johnson easily outdistanced the other Republicans considered contenders for the GOP presidential nomination in 1968. Thus, Harris says, Romney "stands a better chance of winning the White House than any Republican since Dwight D. Eisenhower."

In October, voters favored

President Johnson over Romney by a 51-49 percentage in the Harris poll.

In this month's poll, rank and file Republicans favored Romney for the nomination by a wide margin. He was the choice of 43 per cent of the Republicans, compared with 28 per cent for the runnerup, Richard M. Nixon.

And the poll found that while in September, 54 per cent of the Republican voters thought their party could win the presidency in 1968, 70 per cent thought so after November's Congressional elections, in which the GOP made substantial gains.

According to Harris, the voters would pick Johnson by the same percentage, 54 to 46, against Nixon, Gov.-elect Charles Percy of Illinois or Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York and by 67 to 33 over Gov.-elect Ronald Reagan of California.

The percentage of Republicans favoring candidates other than Romney or Nixon as 12 for Rockefeller, 6 for Percy, 5 for Reagan 2 for Sen.-elect Mark Hatfield of Oregon and 4 unsure.

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP)—The Viet Nam war has left Mrs. Rosemary Kistler, 28, of Mendon, Pa., a widow twice and her second husband, Army Lt. Bernard Kistler, is being buried today at the United States Military Academy.

Mrs. Kistler learned one hour after she gave birth to Kistler's son last week that her second husband had died as his first, the victim of Viet Cong fire. She has another son, by her first husband, Lt. William Reach. Neither man lived to see his child.

Reach was killed 22 months ago.

Brown's Peace Flight Postponed

Brown's flight was tentatively rescheduled for early Tuesday morning.

Eisenhower Back At Gettysburg

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower has left Augusta after spending three days at the Augusta National Golf Club.

He was greeted at Bush Airfield Sunday by about a dozen well-wishers who spoke and shook hands with him before he took off for his Gettysburg, Pa., farm.

Fairchild Resigns

MUSKOGEE (AP)—Alfred C. Fairchild, chairman of Muskogee County Democrats, resigned Sunday, urging "a new breed of leadership" to rebut the party after the Nov. 8 election defeat. "After an election like that I think it is necessary that I step out so we can get a fresh start," he said. Fairchild said he would serve out his term which ends next month.

Bullet Crashes Liuzzo Window

DETROIT (AP)—A bullet shattered a front window Sunday night at the Detroit home of Anthony Liuzzo, 38, whose wife, Viola, was murdered last year in a civil rights demonstration near Selma, Ala.

Liuzzo, a Teamsters Union business agent, would not comment on the incident.

Police and the FBI were notified, but said Liuzzo had not complained about threats and there was no apparent connection with Mrs. Liuzzo's slaying.

The bullet smashed through the front picture window, hit a wall opposite the window and fell under a chair.

Mrs. Liuzzo was killed by gunfire on March 25, 1965, as she was driving down an Alabama highway, after a civil rights march from Selma to Montgomery.

Traffic Takes 14 Lives In State Over Weekend

By The Associated Press

The body of Gus M. Vitor, 38, of Lansing, was found pinned beneath a car in which he was riding Sunday after a five hour search by police.

The driver of the car, Leonard Garfield, 22, of Lansing, crawled onto I 75 near Grayling and flagged down a motorist after Garfield's car rolled off the road and hit several trees.

In a Grayling hospital, Garfield told attendants his friend still was pinned under the car. Police were summoned and a search from 3 a.m. until they found the wreckage at 8 a.m.

Controversy On Kennedy's Death Is 3 Years Old

NEW YORK (AP)—Tuesday is the third anniversary of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in Dallas, Tex., and the controversy surrounding his death continues.

Was the killer Lee Harvey Oswald? Did he act alone? Or was there a conspiracy involving one or more accomplices?

The special investigative commission headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren answered the first two questions with a firm yes, the third with a firm no.

These conclusions followed months of hearing hundreds of witnesses and examining a mountainous array of evidence.

But still pouring forth are books and magazine articles challenging both the commission's report and the adequacy of its investigation.

Life magazine, in this week's issue out today, said, "A new investigating body . . . should re-examine the evidence and consider other evidence the Warren Commission failed to evaluate."

The magazine said Texas Gov. John B. Connally, who was riding with Kennedy and was wounded himself, was still certain that he and Kennedy were hit by two different bullets, not one as the Warren Commission determined.

So persistent are the attacks that in a Nov. 4 news conference President Johnson apparently left open a possibility that the circumstances of the assassination might be further explored — if important new evidence should be forthcoming.

Open To Action
Johnson said: "I know of no evidence that would in any way cause any reasonable person to have a doubt about the Warren Commission. But if there is any evidence that's brought forth, I'm sure that the commission and the appropriate authorities will take action that may be justified."

The Warren Commission report made this summation: "The shots which killed President Kennedy and wounded Gov. (John B.) Connally (of Texas) were fired by Lee Harvey Oswald. On the basis of the evidence before the commission, it concludes that Oswald acted alone."

The commission found that the rifle fire had come entirely from a window of the Texas School Book Depository Building. Critics of the commission insist there is reason to believe some shots were fired from elsewhere.

Other Shots?
Attorney Mark Lane asserts in his book "Rush to Judgment" that at least seven witnesses said they had seen "a puff, or puff, of white smoke" from behind a wooden fence which the presidential car was about to pass.

On that point the Warren report had this to say: "In contrast to the testimony of witnesses who heard and observed shots fired from the depository, the commission's investigation has disclosed no credible evidence that shots were fired from anywhere else."

Wildcats Battle Tough Marines To Tie

Second Half Comeback Produces 7-7 Standoff

By RAY CRANDALL
(Daily Press Sports Editor)

QUANTICO, Va. — You've got to have a lot of guts to take on the United States Marine Corps. And you've got to have more than intestinal fortitude to battle one of the toughest service teams in the nation to a 7-7 standoff at the Northern Michigan University football Wildcats did at Butler Stadium here Saturday.

The big, tough veteran Quantico Marines figured to eat Coach Rolfe Dotch's fuzzy-cheeked kids alive. Why not? The Marines, boasting a proud football heritage earned in gridiron warfare against some of the greatest college teams in the country, are loaded with awesome grid specimens.

Coach Ron Cherubini paraded no less than 48 hulking giants onto the turf against Northern's pared down traveling squad.

College Veterans

Leading the Marines into combat was middle linebacker Troy Perkins, a 250 pound human missile from Memphis, Tenn., and Dick Oldendick, 6 foot 4 inch, 240 pound veteran from Norwood, Ohio.

The Marine roster is dotted with players who sharpened their football teeth at such illustrious institutions as the U.S. Naval Academy, University of Georgia, University of Wisconsin, Manhattan College, Auburn, Oregon State, Villanova, Indiana, Southern Methodist, Missouri, Ohio State and Tennessee, in addition to a dozen smaller schools.

Against this formidable array of size and talent, Dotch threw a crew of kids that included a half dozen freshmen who are hardly dry behind the ears. There were only three seniors on the entire Northern playing squad.

Wildcats Start Slow

But, in addition to a full measure of guts, the Wildcats carried into the game a fierce determination and immeasurable pride in their reputation as one of the leading small college football powers in the United States.

It paid off in an astounding second half comeback that produced the 7-7 standoff and closed the books on Northern's 1966 season with an impressive 6-3-1 record.

The Marines almost blew the Wildcats, rusty from a two week layoff, out of the stadium in the first half. The Michigan invaders were jarred to their innards by the Marine juggernaut.

"We buckled, but we didn't go down," said Dotch, the former Michigan State lineman and ex-Escanaba High School mentor who completed his first season as Northern's head coach.

Picture Changes

Although they dominated all departments of the game through the first half, the Marines were able to take only a slim 7-0 lead into the intermission.

The TD came on an 80 yard drive, capped by halfback George Fitzgerald's two yard dive midway in the second period.

The second half was a different chapter as the Wildcats wrestled control of the game. They kayaked a Marine drive following the second half kickoff and ripped the enemy line with vicious blocking and power running by halfbacks Jim Lindstrom of Iron Mountain and Lon Holton of downtown Sumner.

Northern lanced deep into Marine territory and called on Tony Richardson for field goal attempt from the 34 yard line. The ball sailed true from the tee but bent with a quartering wind as it neared the goal posts and missed by a yard.

The next time they got their hands on the ball the Wildcats chewed their way to the Marine 25 yard line before they gave up possession on a fourth and seven situation on which they faked another field goal try.

Wildcats Get Chance

With 10 minutes to go in the contest the Wildcats got their golden opportunity when Phil DePerro, junior from Niles, Ohio, intercepted a Marine aerial at midfield.

Lindstrom, Holton and Clair Lambert, junior quarterback from Westchester, Ill., punched through holes in the Marine line to move the ball to the one. Holton, a 6 foot 1 inch, 200 pound power runner, blasted over for the score. Richardson tied his 27th successful extra point of the season and Northern had its tie.

Dotch wasn't willing to settle for the deadlock, however. With all the daring of a riverboat gambler, the Northern coach had Lambert firing the ball from deep in his own territory in the closing seconds of the game. The passes failed and Bob Bertrand of Menominee came in to punt from his own 21 yard line with 19 seconds remaining.

The Marines' Mike Payte fumbled the boot and Northern had one more shot at victory. Richardson came on to attempt a prodigious field goal of 50 yards. His kick, fighting a stiff wind, was on target and reached the goal line but dropped short of the cross bar as the final gun sounded.

Chrisant Is Leader

Leader of Northern's defensive platoon that turned the tide in the second half was John Chrisant who showed the Marines some hell-for-leather courage of his own. The 5 foot 9 inch, 190 pound linebacker from Chicopee, Mass., drew gasps of admiration from the partisan Marine spectators for his tremendous performance on defense.

Other Wildcat defenders who came into their own in the second half included Capt. Byron Johnson of Bessemer, 6 foot 1 inch, 190 pound senior end; Jack Spuhler, 202 pound junior linebacker from Sault Ste. Marie and Leroy Spears, a 6 foot 4 inch, 243 pound freshman from Minneapolis. Ed Roney, 237 pound senior from Westfield, N.J., and Dick Hacht, 206 pound soph from Pontiac, were other major cogs in the defensive machinery.

Game statistics went to the Marines who gained 197 yards rushing and added 38 passing. However, Northern reeled off 125 yards on the ground against the Marines who had held seven previous foes to an average of 41 yards per game. The Wildcats added 15 yards on four short pass completions in a dozen attempts.

Champs Off To Fast Start

Three defending Upper Peninsula champions looked impressive in basketball season openers and all will be in action again, along with the fourth titleholder, in an abbreviated pre-Thanksgiving holiday schedule this week.

Escanaba, Ishpeming and L'Anse had little trouble last week proving they'll be very much in the court picture again this winter. The Eskymos downed their city rival, Holy Name; the Hemlockes stoned for their only 1965-66 Great Lakes Conference loss by crushing Manistique and L'Anse walloped Crystal Falls.

L'Anse, the state Class C titlist, now has a 10-game winning streak going. The Hornets' last defeat was a one-point setback to Hancock which cost them the Copper Country Conference crown.

Trout Creek, the fourth U. P. champion and runner-up for the state title, enters the cage wars this week. Dropping out of the Forquips Mountain Conference which they dominated last year, the Anglers will play an independent schedule against most of the FMC members along with home-and-home series with Negaunee St. Paul and Channing. They host Even Tuesday night.

Features of last week's initial action, in addition to the impressive showing of A-B-C champions, were the performances of Bessemer and Marquette Baraga.

Bessemer, which won only one game over a three-year stretch, defeated Stambaugh for its opening-day victory in a long time.

Marquette Baraga, despite the loss of every regular and most of its reserves, proved that 1966-67 might be something more than a rebuilding season. The Royals, certainly not the high-scoring outfit they were last winter, nonetheless beat Baraga Township and then paraded the season's first big upset by downing what was presumed would be a good Calumet quintet.

Gilmer Voted Ball As Lions Surprise Unitas, Baltimore

DETROIT (AP) — Karl Sweetan moved the Detroit Lions, the defense stopped Baltimore, Pat Studstill broke a record and Coach Harry Gilmer got the game ball.

There's nothing like winning and the Lions' 20-14 National Football League victory over Baltimore Sunday showed it. The last time Detroit played Baltimore the Colts won 45-14. The last time the Lions played at Tiger Stadium Green Bay won 31-7, and the fans were singing farewell songs to Gilmer.

This time the team voted Gilmer the game ball, which I appreciate very much," he said. "I think it was a joint effort by some of the older players."

"We voted the game ball to Gilmer," Alex Karras said. "He's been through all we've been through and more. He deserved it."

Garb Yepremian, the little rookie from Cyprus, kicked two field goals and that proved the margin. Karras recovered a fumble that led to one touchdown, Sweetan hit Studstill for a 49-yard scoring play and the defense picked off five Johnny Unitas' passes.

Wayne Walker, a linebacker who harried the Colts enormously, said, "I was trying hard. We've always been concerned about (Bobby) Thompson, giving some help to his side. Today we let Bobby play the best he could and it worked." Thompson intercepted two passes.

Late in the first period Tony Lorrick fumbled and Karras recovered on the Baltimore 21. Sweetan hit Ron Kramer with a pass and the tight end got to the one. Bobby Feltz scored on the next play and Yepremian converted.

Early in the third period Unitas threw to Lorrick. Wayne Rasmussen hit him and the ball bounced into the air. Ernie Clark grabbed it for Detroit and got to the Baltimore 42. Sweetan moved the Lions to the 14, most of the yardage coming on a 15-yard pass to Studstill. Yepremian kicked a 21-yard field goal.

"The next time we got the ball, Unitas had another interception (this fifth) as Thompson snagged it and I decided to get him out of there and sent (Gary) Cuozzo in," said Baltimore Coach Don Shula. Still in the third period, the Lions started from their own 22 and scored in six plays, capped by Sweetan's throw to Studstill. The score was 17-0 and Detroit apparently had it on ice when Cuozzo went to work. He hit John Mackey with a swing pass and Mackey broke a half-dozen tackles and scored on a 64-yard play.

The Lions tried to give it away minutes later when Johnny Robinson signaled for a fair catch of a punt on the 19, but fumbled and Baltimore recovered.

Lenny Moore ran to the seven, then scored and it was Detroit 17, Baltimore 13, with nine minutes left.

Eagles Suffer First Setback

ENGADINE — Coach Rod Carlson's Eagles suffered their first setback of the season here Saturday night, losing to DeTour by 74-43 margin in Eastern Conference action.

The Eagles, fresh from a non-conference decision over Garden in their opener, were never in the game as the highly regarded Red Raiders took command with a 13-7 lead in the opening quarter.

Pacing the DeTour attack was Tom Tellefsen, a 6 foot 1 inch standout, with 12 field goals and four gift shots for 28 points. Seven other Red Raiders contributed to the victory total. Jack Archie led Engadine with 16 points.

Baltimore Now One Game Back Of Winning Packers

By The Associated Press

Last month, Johnny Unitas was just another quarterback to Gary Yepremian, the Cyprot Lion.

Sunday, Unitas was just another quarterback to Yepremian's Detroit playmates.

The Lions intercepted five Unitas passes before driving the Baltimore quarterback ace to cover Sunday on the way to a 20-14 National Football League upset victory over the Colts.

Yepremian, the left-foot, soccer-style place-kicker from Cyprus who made his NFL debut against the Colts on Oct. 16, booted a pair of field goals for the Lions' winning margin in the return match.

Before the club's first meeting, Yepremian was asked if he'd ever heard of Unitas. "He's a quarterback," the little newcomer said. "I hear about him on television. Whose quarterback is he?"

Unitas then fired four touchdown passes, leading the Colts to a 45-14 romp over Detroit.

It was a different story Sunday, the Lion defenders blanketing Baltimore until sub quarterback Gary Cuozzo replaced Unitas in the final period and hit John Mackey with a 64-yard TD pass. Unitas connected on only nine of 19 pass attempts for a total of 93 yds.

Yepremian meanwhile kicked field goals of 17 and 21 yards. Pat Studstill grabbed a 5-yard scoring pass from Karl Sweetan and Bobby Feltz plunged a yard for another Detroit touchdown.

The loss, coupled with Green Bay's 13-6 victory over Chicago, dropped the Colts one game behind the Packers in the league's Western Division title race.

Dallas trimmed Pittsburgh 20-7 and tied the St. Louis for the Eastern Division lead; Cleveland remained in the Eastern race by beating Washington 14-9; Atlanta crushed New York 21-16 for its first NFL victory; Philadelphia topped San Francisco 26-24 and Los Angeles downed Minnesota 21-6 in other games.

Zolt Bratkowski, filling in for injured Bart Starr, fired two touchdowns passes to Carroll Dale, leading Green Bay past the Bears. Bratkowski and Dale connected on a climactic 39-yard scoring play after Chicago's Roger Leclerc missed the extra point attempt following Gale Sayers' two-yard touchdown dive.

Starr suffered a pulled hamstring muscle on his first pass attempt in the game.

Don Meredith ran for one touchdown and passed 38 yards to Bob Hayes for another and Danny Villanueva kicked two the Steelers' bid for a third straight upset.

Leroy Kelly capped the Browns' victory with a 56-yard touchdown bolt up the middle after Frank Rya had sent them ahead with a five-yard TD pitch to Ernie Green.

Randy Johnson threw three touchdown passes and scored another TD as the Falcons ended their losing string at nine games and handed the plodding Giants their eighth setback against one victory and a tie.

King Hill's four-yard scoring flip to veteran Ollie Matson capped a second-half comeback by the Eagles, who trailed 20-7 at intermission. Hill also threw two TD passes to Pete Retzlaff in the Philadelphia rally.

Bruce Bossett kicked four field goals, Roosevelt Grier threw Minnesota's Fran Tarkenton for a safety and Billy

Little Goalie Comes Through

By The Associated Press

Charley Hodge has been doing most of his goaltending from the end of the Montreal bench and it hasn't been the busiest spot in the National Hockey League lately.

But business picked up considerably for Hodge Sunday night. He replaced Gump Worsley in the nets for the slumping Canadiens and turned in a sparkling 40-save performance as Montreal nipped New York 2-1.

It was only the fourth start this season for the diminutive Hodge, but it was a big one. The victory ended a five-game Montreal losing streak and lifted the Canadiens out of the NHL cellar. It also halted a five-game unbeaten string for New York.

In other games Sunday night, Boston stretched its unbeaten string to five games and walloped Detroit 5-2 while Toronto rallied for a 2-2 tie against Chicago.

Truax recovered teammate Roman Gabriel's fumble in the end zone for the game's only touchdown as the Rams outloughed the Vikings.

Arrows Notch First Victory For New Coach

PERKINS—The Nahma Arrows fashioned the first victory in Coach Warren Groelau's young coaching career here Saturday night, planning a 68-58 setback on the Perkins Yellowjackets in a Central League contest.

It took a blistering second half comeback to snatch the decision from Coach Verne Nelson's cages who led at the end of the first quarter, 19-14, and at the intermission, 34-27.

A well balanced attack paid off for the Arrows as four Nahma players reached double figures with sophomore David Feathers and senior David Larson chucking in 15 apiece to take individual honors.

Art Vandamme of Perkins took scoring honors for the night with 23 points, hitting 8 of 15 shots from the field and 7 of 9 from the free throw line. The Yellowjackets were guilty of a steady series of mistakes in which they lost possession of the ball 32 times.

Nahma also won the jayve preliminary, 48-41.

Passes Play Major Role In AFL Results Sunday; Janik Is Thief

By The Associated Press

Art Graham, Otis Taylor and George Sauer displayed sizzling pass catching ability, but when it comes to plucking passes out of the air, you can't overlook Tom Janik.

Boston's Graham shared 11 passes and Kansas City's Otis Taylor grabbed nine as the Patriots and the Chiefs battled to a 27-27 tie in the American Football League Sunday.

Sauer pulled in eight passes, gaining the league lead in that department as the New York Jets whipped Miami 30-13. Buffalo's Janik caught only two passes, but they were thrown by Houston's Don Trull, and the interceptions were key factors in the Bills' 49-30 triumph over the Oilers.

The 35-year-old safetyman picked off his first pass in the second quarter, setting up a touchdown that put the Bills ahead 21-13. Minutes later he got in the way of another Trull aerial and this time rammed 37 yards for a touchdown.

On the way to their respective dressing rooms after the game, Janik chatted with Trull and told the Oilers quarterback he got the ball the second time ahead of intended receiver Larry Elkins because he gambled on where Trull was going to throw it.

The gamble worked, and the Bills went on to increase their Eastern Division lead to one game over Boston.

Oakland slicked Kansas City's Western lead to 1½ games by defeating Denver 17-3. Graham, who hadn't scored a touchdown since 1964, tallied twice for Boston on two of the 11 passes he caught. Babe Parilli hit him on touchdown passes of 21 and 38 yards. Taylor also scored twice, taking passes of 21 and 26 yards from Len Dawson.

The second one gave the Chiefs a 27-24 lead, but Gino Cappelletti's second field goal of the game, a 19-yarder with 34 seconds left, brought the Patriots a tie.

New York's Sauer didn't score any touchdowns, but the 144 yards he gained on his eight receptions put the Jets into scoring territory more than once. Emerson Booser scored twice, the second time on a 65-yard run with the second-half kickoff.

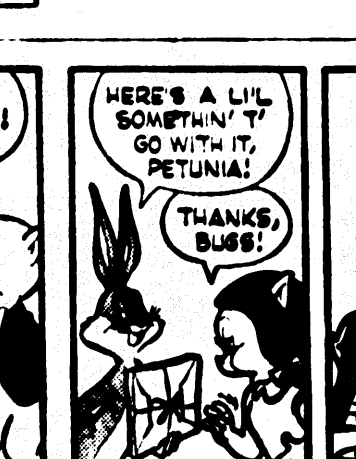

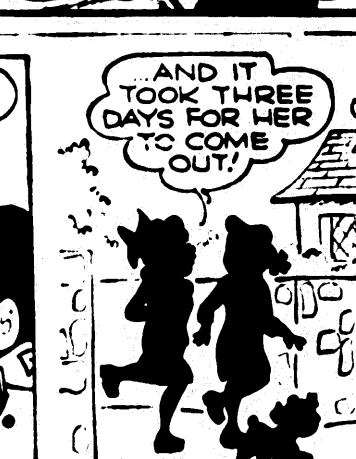

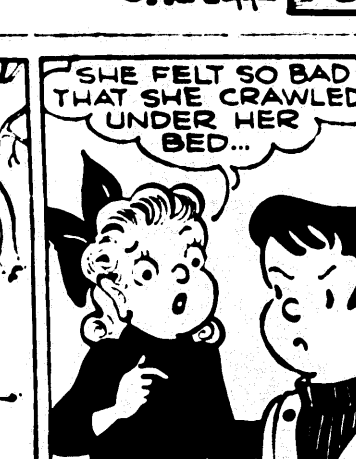

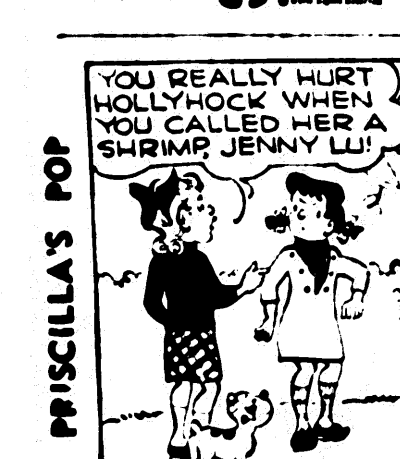

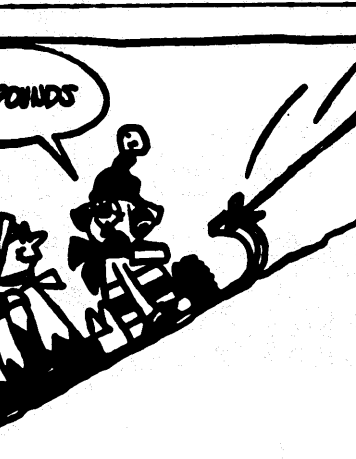

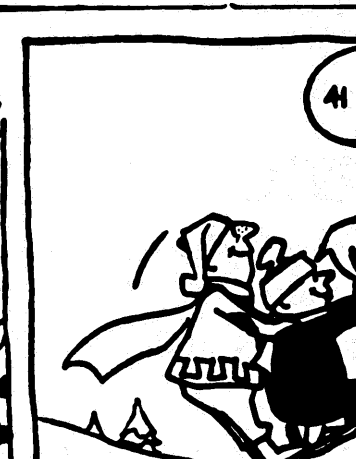

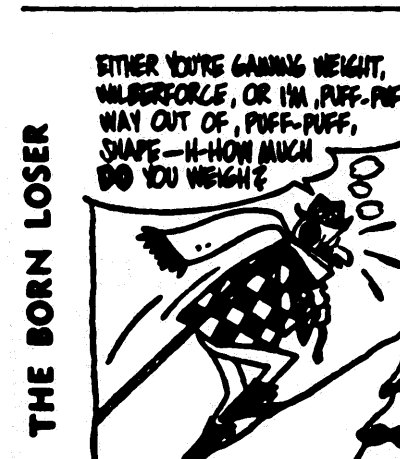

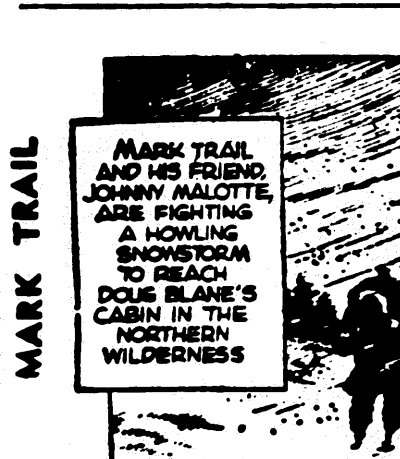

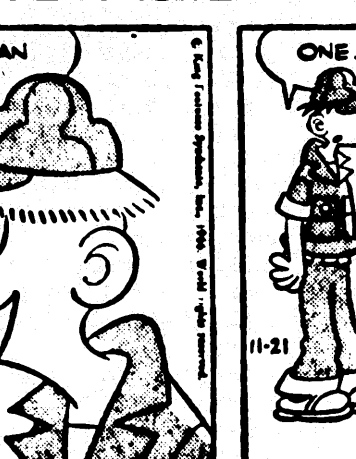

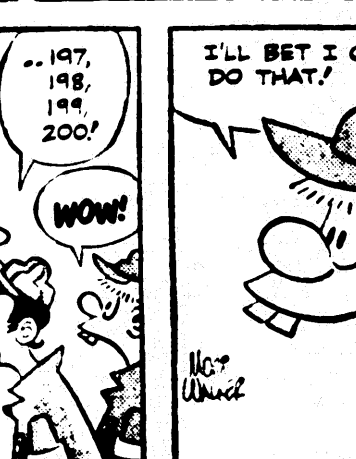

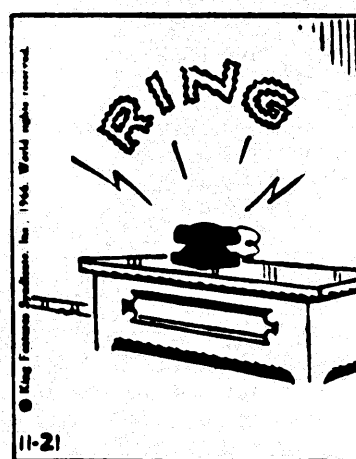

Art Powell, another of the league's top receivers, caught only one pass for Oakland, but it was an 18-yard scoring pass from Tom Flores. The Oakland quarterback also threw two yards to Larry Tolt for a touchdown.

Duke Is Rated With Top Teams

NEW YORK (AP) — The Duke Blue Devils in the Atlantic Coast Conference, West Virginia in the Southern Conference and Providence and Boston College among the independents are expected to dominate the Atlantic Seaboard in the college basketball season opening next week.

Back for the Blue Devils are Rob Verga, Mike Lewis and Bob Riedy, who helped Duke land third place in the NCAA championship tourney last March after losing to Kentucky in the semifinals.

West Virginia was beaten out for the Southern Conference title last season by Davidson, but with Ron Williams back the Mountaineers are favored to regain the conference crown.

Davidson will be hurt by the loss of Dick Snyder, but figures to be dangerous with a good crop of juniors.

The return of the talented Jim Walker, along with Mike Rioridan, accounts for the high regard in which Providence is held. Similarly the return of Willie Wollers makes the Boston College Eagles feared despite the loss of John Austin.

North Carolina, Maryland and N.C. State are expected to provide strong opposition to Duke in the ACC while St. John's of New York and St. Joseph's of Philadelphia also are in the dangerous category, the same as last season. LaSalle, with Hubie Marshall back plus a heralded group of sophomores, may turn out to be the surprise team of the season.

Ballot Season Underway In College Grid Circles

By The Associated Press

With the college football season all but over, the balloting season begins in earnest and a handful of victorious clubs nervously await their postseason fate.

There are the clubs hoping for bids to play in major bowl games — UCLA and Southern California for the Rose Bowl, and Mississippi or Tennessee for the Gator Bowl. Arkansas' chances for the Cotton Bowl depend on Southern Methodist's losing to a weak Texas Christian team on Saturday.

And then there are Michigan State and Notre Dame, which are sweating out ballots of a different kind: The ones that will decide which is the top team in the country. The Irish and Spartans, ranked 1-2 last week, fought to a 10-10 tie in their clash at East Lansing, Mich., Saturday.

The Sugar Bowl has already picked its teams — Alabama, 8-0, and Nebraska, 9-0. The Crimson Tide was No. 3 in last week's Associated Press college football poll and the Cornhuskers were No. 4. And the Orange Bowl has picked fifth-ranked Georgia Tech, 9-0, to play Florida, 8-1.

Other teams set for bowl competition are 10th-ranked Purdue, 8-2, as the Big Ten representative in the Rose Bowl; ninth-ranked Georgia, 8-1, in the Cotton Bowl; and Syracuse, 8-2, in the Gator Bowl.

The Pacific 8 Rose Bowl representative may have been decided Saturday when UCLA, No. 8, beat Southern California, No. 7, 14-7. The Trojans are conference champions — they played one league game more than the Bruins — but UCLA, with a 9-1 mark, is one game up on them overall.

Arkansas' chances for a Cotton Bowl bid and another Southwest Conference title were rudely treated Saturday when upstart Texas Tech beat the Razorbacks, 21-16. SMU, a 24-2 victor over Baylor, can clinch both the bowl bid and the championship with a victory over TCU.

Michigan State jumped to a 10-0 lead over Notre Dame, but the Irish, with substitute quarterback Coley O'Brien in charge, fought back for the tie. The game ended in controversy with Notre Dame seemingly trying to run out the clock by keeping the ball on the ground rather than go for the winning score.

Broncos Bombed By West Texas; Eastern Tripped

By The Associated Press

Michigan's college football season wound up a losing note Saturday as Western Michigan and Eastern Michigan suffered losses to out-of-state foes.

West Texas State whipped the Broncos 30-7 while Ohio Northern upended Eastern 17-0. In other games, Central Michigan blanked Wayne State 44-0, and Northern Michigan played to a 7-7 deadlock with Quantico Marines.

West Texas quarterback Hank Washington, the nation's total offense leader, reentered his already damaged throwing arm but still had enough left to hit on 15 of 20 passes for 164 yards and a touchdown as the Texans dumped WMU. He ran for 64 yards and scored a TD himself.

Western's only score came in the second period on a 22-yard pass from Jim Boreland to Ken Woodside.

Ohio Northern overcame a 9-7 halftime deficit to end Eastern Michigan's five-game winning streak. Lonny Head booted a 21-yard field goal for the Hurons and Bob Edelbrock scored on a 33-yard TD scamper. Joe Petty put Ohio ahead 10-0 with a third period field goal and Northern never trailed.

EMU ended the season with 5-3 record.

Sophomore quarterback Bob Miles passed for 338 yards and three touchdowns as CMU blanked Wayne State.

The victory was Central's fifth straight after five losses in a row for retiring coach Bill Kelly.

Kelly steps down this spring after posting a career mark of 91-58-2 in 37 years. He was presented with an automobile in pregame ceremonies.

CMU rolled up 522 yards in total offense while holding WSU to 213 yards. Wayne State ended the season with a 2-6 mark.

Phil DePerro's pass interception triggered a 39-yard drive to paydirt, earning Northern Michigan a tie with Quantico. Lonnie Holton scored on a one-yard burst and Tony Richardson booted the extra point.

The Ivy League race ended in a three-way tie as Princeton, Dartmouth and Harvard all finished with records of 6-1. Princeton beat Cornell, 7-0. Dartmouth bounced Penn, 40-21, and Harvard blanked Yale, 17-0.

Wyoming won the Western Athletic Conference with a 9-1 mark, beating Brigham Young, 47-14, on Rick Egloff's three touchdown passes.

Irish Coach Lashes Back

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Coach Ara Parseghian of top-ranked Notre Dame, lashing at the widespread criticism for not making what he called "a stupid gamble" against No. 2 Michigan State, said Monday his Fighting Irish still rated the No. 1 college football team in his book.

Charges of being faint-hearted and running out the clock to preserve a come-from-behind 10-10 tie at Michigan State Saturday drew plenty of sparks from the volatile Irish coach.

"Everybody is making a federal case out of the last-minute of the game when we closed with six straight running plays in our own territory," said Parseghian.

"Our whole game plan, which certainly was hit hard by key injuries, was not to open up until we had good field position. At the end if we had moved to their 45 or so we might have gone to the air. But we weren't going to gamble against percentages and loss on an interception and possible field goal.

"We didn't achieve the success we have enjoyed this season by making stupid mistakes.

If I had Saturday's game to do all over, I still wouldn't throw the ball until I had field position."

Parseghian, whose crippled club closes at Southern California Saturday, said he was anxious to see how the national AP poll develops after the Irish-Spartan deadlock.

He had a lot more to say against criticism of his game-ending freeze for the disappointing 10-10 tie. He asserted:

"Nobody has said anything about the Michigan State missing a 13-10 defeat by a margin of three feet or less in the last five minutes. Our Joe Azzaro's missed field goal by that slim margin came after Michigan State gambled with a pass from its own 20 and we intercepted.

"All these experts who said we should have thrown the bomb as the clock ran out, forget we didn't hit the bomb for 30 minutes before.

"And they forget any interception against us at the close could have given Dick Kenney a field goal shot within the 50. Kenney kicked one 67 yards which gave Michigan State its 10-0 lead. Last week, he had a 57-yarder just miss."

Catholic Bishops Call For End To Racial Barriers

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY
WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Roman Catholic bishops, in a major pronouncement on race relations, called Saturday night for dropping the bars that keep Negroes from living in many of the nation's expanding suburbs. Urgently they recommended "a true sense of neighborliness, based upon a religiously inspired conviction that all men are equal before God and that all should be welcomed in our midst."

Attack Poverty
The bishops also called for stepped-up attacks on poverty and on inadequate education, and for strong implementation of laws against racial discrimination and against denial of the vote.

This was one of the pronouncements drafted at this week's path-breaking session of the newly named and reorganized National Conference of Catholic Bishops.

At a news conference Friday night, bishops speaking for the conclave noted that J. Francis Cardinal McIntyre of Los Angeles — scene of the bloody Watts riots — had moved the adoption of the "splendid statement" and had called for its endorsement "most cordially." It was approved unanimously by the more than 200 bishops present.

End Segregation

The statement advised an end of segregation. It did not mention any specific slogan, such as the "black power" cry of some Negroes or the "your home is your castle, protect it" motto with which George P. Mahoney vainly sought the governorship of Maryland.

"We note with sorrow," the statement said, "that civil strife is an ever-present danger. There have been riots in our cities. Racial antagonism has been fostered under many emotionally charged and irrational slogans. Moreover we are still confronted with the depressing problems of poverty, joblessness, and urban and rural slums.

"As American citizens we deplore the fact that such conditions exist in a nation so endowed with wealth. As Christian leaders, we must repeat the constant refrain of recent Popes, and of Vatican Council II, that material goods are held in stewardship for the welfare of all men. Destitution, and degrading, avoidable poverty hurt family life, blight the promise of youth, and lead to a bitter harvest of sickness, delinquency and crime."

Note Improvement

On the score of housing, the bishops made no mention of the open housing legislation, which was lost in the recent session of Congress.

But they said: "As our nation becomes increasingly suburban, industry and service occupations are expanding far more rapidly in the suburbs than in our inner cities. We cannot hope to solve the problem of joblessness in our cities if men and women are denied the opportunity of living near possible places where work is available.

While the issue of fair housing has been the source of grave tensions in some parts of our nation, conditions have noticeably improved in certain areas.

Taxes Don't Daunt Top Money Earners

WASHINGTON (AP) — America's top money earners work long hours, look for safety in investments and don't let taxes discourage them from earning even more.

A Brookings Institution survey of 976 Americans who earn $10,000 or more a year showed a median work week of 48 hours. There was a working wife in 40 per cent of the families earning between $10,000 and $30,000.

Many breadwinners held two jobs — but especially with the very wealthy, the extra work was in such areas as consultant or counsel.

The study said seven of eight respondents specifically said they did not curtail work because of taxes. It concluded that probably less than one-half of 1 per cent of potential output is lost because of tax discouragement.

The survey, published in a book titled "Economic Behavior of the Affluent," also showed:

— The average age and education of respondents was higher: a relatively high proportion were Presbyterians, Episcopalians or Jews, and a relatively low proportion were Catholics or Fundamentalist Protestants. And a larger proportion than in a representative national sample were Republicans, own their own homes and had lived in more than one state.

— A large majority at all income levels named safety as an investment goal; half said they saved to accumulate money for retirement.

X15 Sets New Speed Record

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Air Force Maj. William Knight has set a new speed record in the X15 rocket plane, streaking to 4,159 miles an hour on a nine-minute flight.

His record speed, achieved after firing the plane's rocket engine for 135 seconds, here broke the old record of 4,104 miles an hour set in 1962 by the late Joseph A. Walker.

Knight's record flight began at 45,000 feet, when the X15 was dropped from under the wing of a B52 bomber over Mud Lake, Nev.

The craft also carried experimental patches of a material that melts and sloughs off at high speed, eliminating heat that would otherwise build up beyond the 1,200-degree Fahrenheit temperature limit.
